

THE AMERICAN JEWISH RELIEF COMMITTEE.

Results Obtained by the American Jewish Relief Committee in Its Non-Sectarian Campaign Held During 1920, in Which Over $4,000,000 Has Been Raised.

Over $4,000,000 has been raised by the American Relief Committee in its non-sectarian campaigns for the relief of Jewish war sufferers from January 1, 1920, until June 30, according to a statement issued by Henry E. Rosenfelt, national director of the committee.

This includes the following campaigns: Los Angeles and Southern California, $250,000; Toronto and Ontario Province, $230,000; Washington, D. C., $75,000; Delaware, $155,000; Georgia, $250,000; Des Moines, Iowa, $100,000; Sioux City, Iowa, $66,000; St. Louis, Mo., $60,000; Joplin, Mo., $135,000; North Dakota, $75,000; Ohio, $1,438,000; Oklahoma, $280,000; Harrisburg, Pa. District, $80,000; Utah, $50,000; Vancouver, B. C., $25,000; Wisconsin, $225,000; and Tennessee, $200,000.

Campaigns now going on or being organized under the non-sectarian policy of the committee, with the results they are expected to obtain, include, Alabama, $150,000; San Francisco and Northern California, $400,000; Winnipeg and Manitoba Province $150,000.

In the following campaigns, where intensive campaigns had been held once before, it was deemed advisable to limit the appeal to the Jewish communities, Mr. Rosenfelt explained, with the following highly creditable results: Louisiana, $140,000; Mississippi, $55,821.02; North Carolina, $25,000; and Buffalo, N. Y., $150,000.

The appeal to both Jew and Gentile to come to the relief of the Jewish war sufferers of Eastern Europe, developed intensively under the direction of Mr. Rosenfelt, marks the first time in the history of the Jews that they have ever gone outside their own people, in asking for aid. How successful this policy has been, is indicated by the fact that in the year and a half that Mr. Rosenfelt has been director of the American Jewish Relief Committee, approximately $16,000,000 has been raised throughout the United States, exclusively of New York City and New England.

The non-sectarian campaigns of the committee were extended to Canada this year. The Province of Ontario raised $230,000, while the total amount contributed by Toronto up to the present year was $9,163.80. For the first time in the history of Jewish War relief, both the Province of Ontario and the Municipality of Toronto made official grants of $10,000 each to the committee. Widening the scope of the committee's work still further, Mr. Rosenfelt is arranging for campaigns in Cuba and Porto Rico this fall.

PALESTINE FROM DAY TO DAY.

To decide for which colonies the Jewish National Fund should build stables, investigators of the Agricultural and Colonization Department of the Zionist Commission have been touring Palestine.

A clothing factory modelled along European lines will be started in Jerusalem. M. Picciotti of Manchester and his friends have already collected over 5,000 L capital for its establishment.

Summer vacation begins July 15th in Palestine's schools.

To take advantage of the curative powers of certain regions in Palestine such as the neighborhood of Safed, the slopes of Mount Carmel and the foot of Mount Hermon, a group of doctors, under the auspices of the Palestine office of the Austrian Zionists, is planning to establish sanatoria there.

A through train from Haifa to Cairo with dining and sleeping facilities is taking the place of the inconvenient and cumbersome system under which part of the trip had to be made by boats.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Samuel recently announced the engagement of their oldest son, Edwin Herbert, to Hadassah Grasovsky of Jaffa. The groom was an officer in the Jewish Legion of Palestine.

A Zoo and Aquarium are wanted in Palestine, the youngsters say for their elders to play in, and the elders say where the youngsters can study wild life.

Considerable increase in Palestine trade during the three months, October-December, 1919, over that of the previous three months is evident from the fact that 913 vessels with a 68,639 tonnage visited Haifa, as against 340 vessels with a 19,259 tonnage for the earlier three months.

Building of suburbs on a co-operative basis is planned by the society "Bait Vegan," (House and Garden), Jerusalem which intends to purchase 1,000 dunams on a site capable of becoming the center of a new city. Many demobilized legionnaires have joined the society.

An appeal for co-operation in rebuilding Palestine has been issued by the Vaad Hazmani, (Provisional Committee), to the Arabs in a manifesto which declared that the aspiration of the Jews is not to exploit the Arabs, but to work for their mutual benefit.
